YOU KISSED ME.

The following lines were written some years ago, by a young lady less than twenty years of age: You kissed me! My head dropped low on your breast With a feeling of shelter and infinite rest.

While the holy emotions my tongue dared not speak Flashed up in a flame from my heart to my cheek. our arms held me fast: Oh! your arms were so bold; Heart beat against heart in their passionate fold. our glances seemed drawing my soul through my eyes, As the sun draws the mist from the seas to the skies. Your lips clung to mine till I prayed in my bliss They might never unclasp from the rapturous kiss.

You kissed me! My heart and my breath and my will In delirious joy for a moment stood still.

Life had for me then no temptations, no charms, No visions of happiness outside of your arms. And were I this instant an angel
